

We are told that the most exaggerated notions, as to what the cost of printing the charters would be, prevail among some of the members of the Legislature. Members of the body have been heard to say that the expense would be ten thousand dollars. This is a very great and strange mistake. The acts of 1893 made a volume of 536 pages, and the cost of printing, exclusive of paper, was nine hundred and sixty odd dollars. The chairman of the
